PRINTING TIPS

WHERE TO PRINT (SAME-DAY LOCAL PICKUP)

- FedEx Office: Choose "Ultra Bright White Cardstock." Best for bold, full color.
- Walgreens: Select their matte "Satin" photo paper.
- Staples: Request "110lb white cardstock".
- Office Depot / OfficeMax: Best Paper: 110lb or 120lb Cover Stock (Matte).

Key: Ask the associate to use their "bypass tray" for the thickest cardstock so the paper doesn't bend or jam.

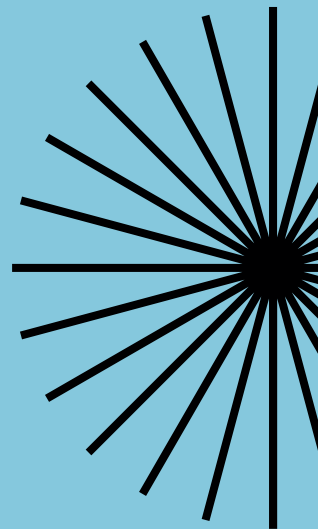

WHERE TO PRINT (ONLINE DELIVERY)

- Mpix: Excellent color accuracy. Highly recommended for archival quality.
- Shutterfly: Make sure to disable "VividPics" or "Auto Enhance" settings so your colors don't look distorted.
- Printique (by Adorama): Best Paper: Luster or Deep Matte
- Artifact Uprising: Best Paper: Signature Matte

WHERE TO BUY FRAMES

CHOOSING THE RIGHT PRINT SIZE

- IKEA: (Knoppäng or Ribba for minimalist profiles).
- Target: (Threshold frames often include matting).
- Michaels: (Frequent 2-for-1 sales, good for standard sizes)
- Craig Frames (craigframes.com or Amazon).
- Walmart: Budget option for standard sizes
- HomeGoods / TJ Maxx: Discounted premium frames — great for unique finds.

FRAMING & MATTE TIPS

FRAMING YOUR ART

- A matte border prevents the art from touching the frame glass.
- Size: If using a matte, your frame will be larger than your print (e.g., an 8x10 print in an 11x14 frame).
- Color: Choose Bright White for a modern gallery look or Black for an edgy "window" effect.
- Tip: Most pre-made frames (IKEA, Target) include the matte. Just check the "Opening Size" on the label.
